

Recipient of the 2019-2020 ASHRAE Duane Hanson Scholarship

Christian Fauer is an upcoming undergraduate senior at Auburn University, studying mechanical engineering and general business. He has spent several semesters interning for Heatcraft Worldwide Refrigeration and for Siemens Gas and Power. These experiences encouraged him to get involved with Auburn's ASHRAE chapter this past year. Christian expects to move to Orlando after graduation to continue working. He enjoys exercising, cooking, and listening to energetic music.
